Granada 15th to 17th of may 2008

<http://www.sehp2008.info>

Call for papers

Place

---

The symposium will be held in Granada at the School of Psychology, depending on the number of participants.

Topics

The symposium will organize workshops about the following topics:

- The role of women in the History of Psychology.
- Abraham Maslow's centenary.
- Debates about psychological schools and systems.
- History of Spanish Psychology.
- Epistemic, psychosocial and historiographical questions.
- History as a foundation for understanding current Psychology: research into the development of concepts, processes, methods and areas of Psychology.

As in previous years, other topics will be accepted, as long as they are directly related to the History of Psychology.

Works may be presented as either posters or oral communications. Applicants may suggest in which workshop their work should be included but the final decision will be taken by the scientific committee.

Work submission

Submissions will be sent to the symposium secretary at sehpxxi@gmail.com. A 450-500 word abstract should be sent before March the first 2008. The following information should be included in the abstract:

- Title, specifying whether it would be an oral presentation or a poster.
- Name of the author/s.
- Affiliation.
- Mail address.
- Telephone and fax number, e-mail address.
- Technical material needed for the presentation.

Besides, the whole work (in the case of oral presentations) should be submitted for publication in the journal of the society. They should be received before April the first 2008 at the same e-mail address as above. The submission should consist of an attached Word 2003 document, Courier font 12 cpi with a maximum length of double-spaced 10 pages (about 18000 characters).

Oral presentations will be published as long as they include the following information:

- 1) Maximum length: about 18000 characters.
- 2) Title of the work.
- 3) Name of author/s
- 4) Keywords.
- 5) Abstract (max. 300 words).
- 6) Mail address.
- 7) Telephone, fax and e-mail address.

Only one work per author will be published, regardless of whether there are any co-authors.
